

The INTEGREX j-200S with a second spindle

Yamazaki Mazak Corporation (President: Tomohisa Yamazaki, Address: Oguchi-cho, Niwa-gun, Aichi-pref.) has announced the start of sales of the INTEGREX j-200S with second spindle.

The INTEGREX j-200S multi-tasking machine has been well received by the world-wide machining industry. By being able to offer a second spindle, its versatility is substantially increased by having the capability of performing continuous machining — completing 1st and 2nd operation in a single machine setup.

The specifications of the new second spindle are identical to the machine's main spindle.
